Dana,

The following is the draft Exide white paper outline based on your and my notes (I didn't get John's list). As I was researching the information Enrique and John requested, I decided to fill in the text of the white paper as the start of a ruff working draft. Although I found a lot of information on the number of residential parcels that have been investigated and cleaned up, I didn't find a lot on actual cost and burn rate. I included the costs that Steve Armann presented to us and Enrique mentioned on Thursday. However, Steve invited me to the monthly status update meeting scheduled for this Wednesday. Steve said they expect a cost/budget update.

I put some time on our calendar Wednesday morning for us to go over the outline.

Thanks
